

OUR DEWEY SHOE

FOR MEN

at $3.00 A PAIR

IS A MARVEL OF CHEAPNESS.

It was the best shoe ever offered for $3.00 two years ago, but when the recent advance of 40c to 50c a pair is taken into consideration it places this shoe in a class all by itself.

Just Think of Buying---

A man's genuine Cordovan Shoe, goodyear welt soles, English back stays, silk stitched throughout, made as solid as leather can make it, on the latest style lasts,

For 3.00 a Pair.

Try to buy such a shoe anywhere else for $3.00 or even 3.50 and you will begin to realize how much of a BARGAIN our Dewey Shoe is.

There is only one trouble and that is, we have only about 400 pairs left and when they're gone, there'll be no more of them.

AT FRANKFORT.

Republicans Uneasy At The Prospect of an Injunction.

Realize That Two Can Play at The Game—Bradley Will Weaken.

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 27.—There is a general impression outside that some important move is to be made by the Goebel side early this week, and it is generally supposed that a mandatory injunction suit to prevent the state election board from counting the vote of Jefferson, Knox and Johnson counties will be part of it, though this is not confirmed by any one in authority.

It is doubtful if Governor Bradley would recognize Goebel as governor if given a certificate of election by the state election board unless their action was in obedience to a ruling of the court. In that event, it is believed, he would resist no further, but would advise Taylor to contest before the legislature.

Neither Bradley, Taylor, nor any of the Republican leaders, however, believe that the court of appeals, in the face of its decision in the Nelson county case yesterday, will grant an injunction, and are today more confident than ever that the state election board will give Taylor a certificate of election. In Taylor circles it is claimed that two of the three state commissioners, Ellis and Pryor, are sure to vote to stand by the vote in every county as it appears on the face of the returns.

YOUNG GREEN

May Have Perished in a Storm Raging in Texas.

Dallas, November 25.—Alarming reports come from the lower gulf coast of Texas, where a storm has been raging. The storm was most severe in the vicinity of Rockport. A number of small vessels have been lost, and hundreds of head of cattle are drowned, having been driven into the gulf. Many houses have been destroyed, and it is feared some lives were lost. Much uneasiness is felt for hunting and yachting parties from Dallas, among whom are ex-Mayor Holland and E. H. R. Green, son of Hetty Green, of New York.

BACK TO TOWN.

Dr. J. A. Southall Has Resumed Practice In Hopkinsville.

Dr. J. A. Southall has returned from Bennettstown and resumed the practice of medicine in this city. Two years ago he went to his farm near Bennettstown on account of his failing health. Now with health restored he has returned to his city residence on South Virginia street and has opened an office over Hopper's book store. Dr. Southall is a physician of extensive and successful experience and a gentleman of wide influence and popularity. His professional card appears in this paper.

PARALYTIC STROKE

Causes the Death of Mrs. Lawrence, of Trigg.

Cadiz, Ky., Nov. 24.—Mrs. Mary Lawrence died yesterday at her home four miles south of this place from the effects of a paralytic stroke. She was 75 years old and had not been in good health for some time. She had been a member of the Methodist church for about fifty years and was loved by all who knew her. A good woman has gone home to rest.

GIANT.

Mrs. Emily Carnes, who spent the summer with the family of Mr. E. B. Long, left Friday for her home in Houston, Texas.

LOCAL CONTESTS.

Two Filed in Hopkinsville and One in Pembroke.

Notices of contest have been filed by the defeated Democrats in two of the wards of Hopkinsville. One of these was filed by J. D. Ware against J. S. Fritz, in the Second ward. Mr. Ware was defeated by only 2 votes and he alleges that his opponent is ineligible from not having been in the ward six months prior to the election.

The other contest is by J. T. Wall against E. M. Flack in the Sixth ward. Mr. Wall alleges that at the time of his election his opponent held two other civil offices—Census Supervisor and Asylum Commissioner—which under section 3 of the Charter rendered him ineligible for Councilman.

These contests will have to come before the new Council which goes into office Dec. 4.

J. E. Jackson, who was defeated by J. M. McGlothlin for Marshal of Pembroke by 2 votes, has filed a contest upon the same grounds urged in his protest before the election commissioners, that the election in one precinct was not by secret ballot, as the stubs were left on the city ballots. Unless there is a provision for settling contests in the charter of Pembroke, the matter will come before the Election Commissioners.

BOB THOMAS

Married in New York Last August to Mrs. Ragsdale.

Hon. R. Y. Thomas, jr., has returned from San Antonio, Texas, where he had been to visit his wife, says the Central City Republican. The marriage ceremony was performed in New York City on August 2, 1899, which united the lives of R. Y. Thomas, jr., of Central City, Ky., and Mrs. Annie L. Ragsdale, of San Antonio, Texas. Mrs. Thomas was formerly Miss Annie Barber, of San Marcus.

Mrs. Thomas will join her husband at this place sometime early in December for a stay of several months, it not having been fully determined where they will make their future home.

PNEUMONIA CAUSES DEATH

Of Prominent Business Man, Formerly of This City.

Mr. Frank McComb, formerly of this city, died at his home in Louisville, last Thursday night, after a brief illness, of pneumonia. He was 29 years old.

He was a very popular young business man and served with the First Kentucky regiment in the Spanish-American war. Since the war he had been engaged in the insurance business.

TWO SISTERS

Brought to the Asylum Together for Treatment.

Two sisters, Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Williams, of Scottsville, Ky., were received at the Asylum for treatment a few days ago. They were placed in the institution in the hope that the treatment will restore their minds, as it is believed to be merely a severe nervous disorder with which they are suffering.

MASON HELD OVER.

Executed Bond for His Appearance at February Term.

The examining trial of Jack Mason, col., for the killing of Henry Gaither, also col., at Gracely a few weeks ago, was held before Judge Cansler Friday and resulted in the prisoner being sent on to the grand jury, which meets next February. His bond was fixed at $100 and he promptly executed same and was released from prison.

Prof. H. L. Holt, of Dawson Springs, spent Saturday in the city.

A WOMAN.

Ellis Glenn Was Sent to State's Prison as a Man.

Penitentiary Bathroom Discovered a Secret That Shook the Walls of the Place.

Chester, Ill., November 25.—Ellis Glenn until to-day believed by everybody in Southern Illinois and Missouri to be a man turns out to be a woman. Glenn, who came from the East, was arrested, and pleaded guilty at Hillsboro, Ill., on a charge of forgery. It was alleged that he endeavored to obtain money on a forged note. He was sentenced to serve an indefinite period on parole at the Southern Illinois Penitentiary at Chester. This is an institution for male prisoners only.

To-day Glenn arrived at the prison in charge of Sheriff Cassidy. Fifteen minutes after the arrival of the pair the prison walls shook with a sensation such as it has not known in a long while. Glenn was regularly turned over to Deputy Warden McDowell, who receipted for him. The prisoner was ordered, as is customary in such cases, to have his hair clipped. That operation performed he was assigned to the bathroom, to undergo a good washing, as is also customary. The sex of the prisoner was discovered before the immersion.

It was a surprise to the officials. Glenn was hustled into clothes again without any delay and sent off to the hospital, where an examination by surgeons proved conclusively that the new arrival was not a man, as had been supposed, but a real, live woman. As there is no ward for women at Chester Glenn was placed in charge of Cassidy and forwarded back to Hillsboro.

GLENN'S FIANCEE

Refuses to Believe That Her Sweetheart Is a Woman.

Hillsboro, Ill., November 25.—Like a thunderbolt from a clear sky came the news to-day that Ellis Glenn is a woman—not a man. The most surprising features about Glenn's case is that he or she was engaged to be married to Miss Ella Dukes, of Butler, a pretty little town near Hillsboro. When arrested Glenn was released on bail furnished by the young lady's father. When apprised of the startling development in the case to-day Miss Dukes refused to believe that her fiancée was of her own sex. Still, the telegram conveying the information proved a great shock to the young woman.

One of Glenn's attorneys is Congressman Jett, of this state. To-day, after her sex became known, she wired him at Washington if he would still be her counsel. She evidently intends to make a fight for her liberty. Pending anything being done in this respect she will be sent to the prison at Joliet.

"FOUR OF A KIND".

Eight Hearts Made Happy—Cere-monies Said Sunday.

There were four marriages in the county Sunday. The first to take place was that of Mr. Walter Goode and Miss Addie May Yancey, a popular young Pon couple. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Jas. Coleman. The next was that of Mr. W. E. McIntosh and Miss Nora A. Wooley, of Kelly. In this case Rev. W. H. Moore performed the ceremony.

The third knot was tied by Rev. Israel Joiner, of Lafayette, the contracting parties being Mr. J. N. Stagner and Miss Madie Bracy, of the same neighborhood.

Esquire H. C. Helsley was called upon to officiate at the marriage of Mr. J. L. Brothers and Miss L. J. McCracken, young people living near Johnson's, in Northeast Christian.

DEATH OF JOHN DOYLE.

A Section Foreman on the I. C. For Years.

John Doyle, an I. C. section foreman, died at his home near Cobb, Sunday afternoon, after an illness of six months, aged about 70 years. He had been in the railroad service for several years and assisted in laying the rails on the road from Princeton to Clarksville. He leaves a wife and an adopted daughter. The remains will be taken to Bowling Green to-day for interment.

SUPERVISORS SELECTED.

Will Convene January 1 to Supervise the Assessors' Books.

The following order has been entered on the minutes of the County Court in the Clerk's office:

"Ordered that C. A. Brasher, W. F. Garnett, J. T. Walker, W. R. Renshaw, Geo. N. Johnson, T. M. Barker, T. L. Moss, be and they are hereby appointed Supervisors of the Assessor's books for the year 1900. And they will convene at the court house in Hopkinsville, Ky., on Monday, January 1, 1900."

SUNDAY WEDDINGS

Seem to be Greatly on the Increase.

Saturday, Sunday and Monday are now the favorite days in the week for marriages—Sundays in rural districts and Saturdays in towns. Sunday weddings seem to be generally more numerous than they were, while the number which take place on Saturday are slightly on the decrease. It is estimated that about 75 per cent of the weddings now take place on the above mentioned days.

HENDERSON KILLING.

Pleas Turpin Shoots and Kills John McBride.

Pleas Turpin, aged 21, shot and killed John McBride in Henderson Saturday night. McBride went to Turpin's room and created a disturbance and was shot dead.

Danger Signals!

Do you take cold with every change in the weather? Does your throat feel raw? And do sharp pains dart through your chest?

Don't you know these are danger signals which point to pneumonia, bronchitis, or consumption itself?

If you are ailing and have lost flesh lately, they are certainly danger signals. The question for you to decide is, "Have I the vitality to throw off these diseases?"

Don't wait to try SCOTT'S EMULSION "as a last resort." There is no remedy equal to it for fortifying the system. Prevention is easy.

Scott's Emulsion

prevents consumption and hosts of other diseases which attack the weak and those with poor blood.

SCOTT'S EMULSION is the one standard remedy for inflamed throats and lungs, for colds, bronchitis and consumption. It is a food medicine of remarkable power. A food, because it nourishes the body; and a medicine, because it corrects diseased conditions.
